Year-End Accomplishments

- Our students and staff had opportunities to engage and learn with local Indigenous Knowledge Keepers and Elders, such as a community walk on Orange Shirt Day, making Indigenous art, and constructing a Tee-Pee on our school site
- Community connection opportunities for students to interact with people in Niverville community occurred, such as singing at the Heritage Centre, tours at YGP, Santa Lucia, Chicken Chef, and Opa's Park, as well as a visit to the Fire Department, were a few of the highlights.
